

Jeff Kile, CIC, CRM, MLIS

President

jkile@tga-ins.com
717.849.4927

Jeff Kile is President of The Glatfelter Agency (TGA) and has enjoyed a career in insurance since 2003 when he started as an intern for TGA. Following his internship, he transitioned to a commercial lines Account Executive in 2004, a Sr. Account Executive in 2014, and became President in 2022. A few of his educational and career highlights include:

- Associates Degree in Business Administration from Penn State University
- Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a focus on Management and Marketing from Penn State University
- Earned his Certified Insurance Counselor, Certified Risk Manager and Management Liability Insurance Specialist designations

Jeff enjoys volunteering and giving back to the York community, and has worked with Big Brothers Big Sisters of York and Adams County, Cultural Alliance of York, YMCA of the Roses, York County Economic Alliance, Junior Achievement of South-Central PA, Rotary Club of York East, Stillmeadow Church of the Nazarene and United Way of York County. He's also a graduate of Leadership York and Mentorship York.

Jeff is passionate about promoting a healthy lifestyle and enjoys swimming, biking, running, hiking, fishing and camping. He also loves enjoying the many blessings life has to offer with his family.

Jeff's favorite things:

- » His kids' sports teams
- » Enjoying a good burrito with his wife
- » Comedy movies
- » Any book by James Rubart or any good business book on strategy or leadership

