

Paul Hadzor

Regional Vice President/Recruiter, SAA

phadzor@tga-ins.com
717.849.4937

Through The Glatfelter Agency (TGA), Paul Hadzor is the Regional Vice President for the Susquehanna Agent Alliance (SAA). In his role, he works with Independent Agents to help them maximize growth and income opportunities. Paul joined TGA in 2019 and has been working in insurance since 1995. A few of his educational and career highlights include:

- B.S. from Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania
- Subrogation Claims Representative, Allstate (1995-1997)
- Risk Management Underwriter, Allstate (1997-1999)
- Technology Education Consultant, Allstate (1999-2005)
- Agency Process Specialist, Allstate (2005-2014)
- Agency Sales Manager, Farmers Insurance (2014-2018)

In addition to helping independent agents maximize their success, Paul enjoys making a positive impact within the community. He works with the Coatesville Youth Initiative, which is aimed at providing resources, programs and mentors to inner city youth, and is also active in a variety of organizations within the York area, including the American Heart Association, United Way of York County and Leg Up Farm.

Paul's favorite things:

- » DIY projects around the house
- » Taking walks around local public reserves with his wife and dogs
- » Trips to Gettysburg or other historical sites
- » Authentic Philadelphia cheesesteaks
- » The Philadelphia Phillies and Pittsburgh Steelers

